Do you like to become an trainer to give workshops and seminars?

Training course for (10) persons

Background:

For several years, we have been giving workshops on different topics for example the racism and privileges of some groups and solidarity initiatives in working with people with refugee experience. Our goal is to enable the target groups to act better and to strengthen them in terms of making their cooperation with refugees in more equal level.

Glokal.e.v also conducts self-empowerment workshops for people of immigrant origins, and blacks. POC, And volunteers from developing countries in Germany where they are encouraged to speak confidently about themselves, to claim their rights and not just to accept discrimination.

About us:

We are a Berlin-based organisation that has been engaged in political education and adult education for more than 10 years. Through our work, we want to spread awareness and political education on important issues such as neo-colonialism, the balance of world power and our focus on issues such as post-colonial analysis and racial discrimination, development policy development and voluntary services Fair trade, and offer workshops and training in these areas as well brochures.
